Dear Barbara,

The Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries would like to propose the names of three of our members for consideration for nomination to AALL office. Our annual chapter meeting took place last week from Thursday - Sunday in Charleston, West Virginia. Therefore, we were unable to come together as a chapter prior to that time to select those individuals we endorse for AALL office. It is our hope that you and your committee will take the timing of our meeting into account, despite our having missed the official deadline.

The three individuals we proudly put forward for consideration are:

Timothy Coggins

Edmund P. Edmonds

Hazel L. Johnson

All three have served our chapter as President and each is well-qualified to serve AALL on the Executive Board. Please let me know whether our chapter can provide additional information regarding these three fine individuals.

Thank you for your consideration of our chapter's input in the nomination process.

Very truly yours,

Donna Bausch
Secretary, SEALL
